

Categories of documents held by the authority under its control

The Chief Administrative Officer (CAO) has the final authorisation regarding the custody of documents of various categories such as Finance, Legal, Projects, Stores & Purchase, Employee records, various administrative documents, Minutes of Board of Governors' Meetings, and so on.

The CAO may delegate accountability to respective department heads for having custody and access to documents of respective departments.