

President Kovind returns to Delhi

LOKMAT NEWS NETWORK
NAGPUR, MAY 8

President of India Ram Nath Kovind left for Delhi on Sunday afternoon at 4.15 after taking part in the inaugural function of newly-built campus of Indian Institute of Management-Nagpur in Mihan. He was given a traditional farewell at Dr Babasaheb Ambedkar International Airport.

Maharashtra governor Bhagat Singh Koshyari, energy minister Nitin Raut, president of zilla parishad Rashmi Barve, Air Marshal Shashikar Chaudhary, divisional commissioner Madhavi Khode-Chaware, commissioner of police Amitesh Kumar, district collector R

President of India Ram Nath Kovind being seen off by the Maharashtra governor Bhagat Singh Koshyari and energy minister Nitin Raut before he flew back to New Delhi, at Dr Babasaheb Ambedkar International Airport in the city on Sunday.

Vimala, special inspector general of police Chhering Dorje and superintendent of police Vijaykumar

Magar were present on the occasion. Earlier, a traditional welcome was also given on President's arrival. Governor Bhagat Singh Koshyari also let for Mumbai at 4.45 pm.