

Be a leader but first be a good human: MECL CMD

Explore every opportunity, be ruthless in making the most of everything, be a leader but most importantly be a good human being, advised Dr Ranjit Rath, CMD of MECL while delivering the keynote address at formal function organized to welcome the new batch of students at Indian Institute of Management (IIM), Nagpur, at Mihan. He addressed the eighth batch of MBA 2022-24 and second batch of PhD 2022-26 students. "Portfolios will come and go but how you handle them is more important. Be more humble, more open and flexible. Only then will you be able to change yourself according to the changing circumstances," said Dr Rath. In this MBA batch, IIM Nagpur has received a good mix of students from 26 states and UTs with the percentage of woman students climbing to 42.8% as compared to last year's 23%. Dr Bhimaraya Metri, director of IIM Nagpur, was all praise for the students for making the right choice by choosing the institute. Earlier, Prof Prakash Awasthy, chairperson PGP, urged the students to make the most of the opportunities coming their way.
