

Community News

IIM Nagpur bags Future of Management Education Award

The Indian Institute of Management (IIM) Nagpur bagged the prestigious 'Future of Management Education Award 2023' at the BW Future of Management Education Conclave 2023 held in New Delhi recently. Dr Bhimaraya Metri, director, IIM Nagpur, received the award.

Future of Management Education awards was given in various categories. IIM Nagpur received the maiden award for Best B School in Industrial Training.

Dr Metri, while participating in the panel discussion, pointed out that there was a gap between what was taught in the B Schools and what was actually implemented in the industry.

The day-long event witnessed panel discussions, exchange of ideas, trends, and opportunities in education beyond the classroom. Over 50 directors, management education leaders, and industry leaders came together to discuss the evolving nature of business schools.

Dr Bhimaraya Metri (right), director, IIM Nagpur, receiving the Best B School in Industrial Training award from Dr Anurag Batra, chairman, and editor-in-chief of BW Business World.

The experts pondered upon the changing education scenario and the need to prepare the students for the bigger stage. The panel members had a consensus about the need for perpetual learning and constant upskilling by students and faculty members to survive in the changing world.