

Prizes of ISKCON's competition on Srimad Bhagavad Gita distributed

■ Staff Reporter

SRI Sri Radha Gopinath Temple, Gate No 2 Behind Empress Mall, established by Srila Lokanath Swami Maharaj, disciple of A C Bhaktivedanta Swami Srila Prabhupada, Founder, ISKCON, organised a Value Education Contest (VEC) centred on the teachings of the Bhagavad Gita, for fostering spiritual growth and knowledge among the school children. The culminating event of prize distribution ceremony was conducted in the courtyard of the temple.

As a chief guest, Dr Bhimaraya Metri, Director, IIM, emphasised the importance of values and holistic education. The audience was then inspired by the motivational address from Aradhya Bhagavan Das, a senior monk, youth counsellor and community guide, who encouraged the participating children to imbibe the profound teachings of the Bhagavad Gita.

The highlight of the event was the prize distribution ceremony, which brimmed with enthusiasm and anticipation. The students were lauded and awarded in four distinct categories, by recognising their cognitive skills and understanding of the teachings of Bhagavad Gita. The prize winners included School Toppers (who were given Gold & Silver Medals), and the overall Top 3 Rankers across schools of Nagpur in two categories - 5th to 7th std and 8th to 10th std, informed a release issued by Dr Shyamsunder Sharma, Spokesperson, ISKCON, Nagpur.

In the Category of 8th to 10th Standard, Jayita Prasad, of class 9th from DPS Kamptee, clinched the first position. Anushka Bagadia of DPS MIHAN, also a 9th grader, secured second position & Soham Muthal, of class 10th from R S Mundle, secured the third position. In the Category of 5th to 7th Std, Manan Agarwal, of Class 6th from Sandipani, bagged first position. Aaditya Singh, of class 7th from DPS Kamptee, secured second position and Falit Hudiya, of class 5th from DPS Kamptee, secured third position. The First Prize was a gear bicycle, the second prize was a Smart Watch while the third prize was a school bag.

Winners of competition organised by ISKCON's Nagpur Centre with guests.
